“I founded ECR over 18 years ago and carefully built it over time to a profitable critical mass. After 50 years of involvement in the pharmaceutical industry, I concluded that it was time to concentrate on my other business interests. Continuity of employment and career opportunities for the ECR personnel were very important considerations as I planned an ownership transition. Dominion professionally ran a process which resulted in a fairly valued and structured transaction and delivered a new owner, Hi-Tech Pharmacal, committed to growing the business while providing our employees with continued opportunities for career development.”
