“Having been involved with Drake for most of my professional career, I was interested in diversifying my wealth and transitioning ownership of the business. With Drake’s strong position in the industry and a solid management team, Dominion Partners was able to garner significant interest from the private equity community. We chose Fulham because it offered a transaction that fairly met my objectives and is well positioned to facilitate the continued growth of Drake. Dominion excelled in negotiating the transaction and orchestrating a quick and efficient closing schedule. Their advice was invaluable throughout the process.”
