“When we decided to hire an investment banker, we wanted a firm that had the necessary experience and skill set, but as importantly, we wanted someone that we could trust. Dominion Partners exceeded our expectations on all counts. They assisted us in positioning our business for sale, arranged discussions with all of the right prospective purchasers, and guided us through the process to a successful closing with IES. We feel like we have properly positioned Valentine Electrical for continued growth in the 21st century. We enjoyed working with Dominion Partners and recommend them highly.”
